

SHAILESH J. MEHTA SCHOOL OF MANAGEMENT, IIT BOMBAY

Frequently Asked Questions (Ph.D Admission)

1. Where can I find the information brochure of the PhD program?

Ans: The brochure is available at the following links:

Brochure: <https://www.iitb.ac.in/newacadhome/Ph.D.Brochure2023-24.pdf>

Kindly go through the details given in this document to answer most of your questions

2. When can I apply for the PhD at SJMSOM?

Ans. Applications for Ph.D are accepted once in a year (i.e. Autumn Semester

(July session). Last date for applying for AY 23-24 is April 17, 2023

Click here for further information: <https://www.iitb.ac.in/newacadhome/phd.jsp>

3. What is the eligibility criteria for PhD at SJMSOM?

Ans. Eligibility criteria link: <http://www.som.iitb.ac.in/?p=723>

4. Can executives/working professionals/college teachers pursue part time PhD at SJMSOM?

Ans. Yes. SJMSOM offers part time PhD programme for executives/working professionals/college teachers. Click here for further information on rules and regulation of PhD admission, at IIT Bombay (section 12 R.1.1. (Admission categories).

<http://www.iitb.ac.in/newacadhome/phdRules.pdf>

5. Which university/college degree is valid for admission?

Ans. Any Institute recognized by AICTE/UGC/AIU.

6. I have done a one year Executive MBA programme. What will be the qualifying degree for me?

Ans. One year Executive MBA programme candidates are also eligible. For more details refer to Eligibility criteria: <http://www.som.iitb.ac.in/?p=723>

7. What is the selection process for PhD at SJMSOM?

Ans. All candidates meeting eligibility criteria will be evaluated by respective areas and shortlisted for the area specific test (AST). Based on the performance in AST, candidates will be shortlisted for Personal Interview. Selection will be based on the performance in the Personal Interview. Generally, both entrance test and interview will happen on the same day. Further details of the selection process will be shared with the shortlisted candidates through email.

8. Is GMAT/GRE score accepted? What is the minimum score?

Ans. Yes, GMAT/GRE scores are accepted. Should have taken

GATE/CAT/GMAT/GRE during last 5 years and scored minimum percentiles /marks as specified below:

GATE:75 percentile overall; CAT: 75 percentile overall, GMAT:600 marks,

GRE:300 marks.

For more details refer to Eligibility criteria: <http://www.som.iitb.ac.in/?p=723>

9. How do I prepare for PhD entrance test?

Ans. One needs to prepare for the area specific test (AST). The syllabus for the test can be found here Link: <https://www.som.iitb.ac.in/wp-content/uploads/2023/03/Syllabus-for-Ph-D-area-test-23.3.2023.pdf>

10. Is there any sample question paper available for the entrance test?

Ans. For current admission process, previous question papers are not available.

11. Is submitting a research proposal mandatory?

Ans. Yes, it is mandatory. Applications without a research proposal will not be shortlisted for the PhD admission test.

12. How to write a research proposal? Is there any sample research proposal?

Ans.: The research proposal should be of 1500 words and have following sections:

Introduction/Motivation, Literature Review and Proposed Methodology.

Click here for a sample research proposal. <https://www.som.iitb.ac.in/wp-content/uploads/2018/10/Sample-Research-Proposal.pdf>

13. In which area, can I do research?

Ans. The candidate is open to do research in any area in which school faculty has expertise. Click here <https://www.som.iitb.ac.in/?p=603> for different research areas. To have a better idea of research being carried out, the prospective candidates are advised to look into faculty members' profiles (<http://www.som.iitb.ac.in/?p=122>) and current students' research topics (<http://www.som.iitb.ac.in/?p=438>).

14. What is the duration of course work?

Ans. The duration of course work is 1 year. Candidates with MBA or equivalent degree in management will have to complete 40 credits spread across two semesters and candidates with Non MBA degree (M.Tech/M.E/ etc.) have to complete 52 credits. Click here for further information <http://www.iitb.ac.in/newacadhome/phdRules.pdf> (follow Section 3 - Pattern of courses and credits)

15. What is the fees structure?

Ans. Click the link for fees details.

<https://www.iitb.ac.in/newacadhome/FeesStructure.jsp>

16. How much stipend do I get during PhD?

Ans: As per the guidelines of MHRD/UGC, full-time research scholars [in Teaching Assistance (TA) category] are entitled for Rs 31,000 per month during the first two years of Ph.D program and Rs 35,000 per month for next three years subject to fulfilment of requirements as prescribed by funding agency/institute/department.

17. Can I stay in IITB campus during my PhD program?

Ans. Yes. Accommodation in hostels is provided for full-time research scholars (Teaching Assistant (TA) category). For married research scholars' quarters is provided subject to availability.

18. What is the duration of PhD program?

Ans. After the mandatory one year course work, the scholars in full time category have taken nearly 3-4 years to submit the thesis. Candidates in other categories have taken little longer.

19. What is the minimum requirement for submission of thesis?

Ans. Before a candidate submits the PhD thesis, it is expected that (s) he/she has at least one paper published/accepted for publication in a refereed journal of repute and at least one full paper accepted and presented in an International Conference. This is only indicative. Scholars in the past have published more publications than the minimum required.